

Welcome VitiNord

Anna Haldrup
Head of Department
Department of Food Science

UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN

University of Copenhagen – The Scandinavian Wine University !

Department of Food Science and Department of Plant and Environment: Growing, production, quality

- Plant Science – Growing, breeding, pathology
- Microbiology and Fermentation
- Aroma and Flavour Science
- Sensory Science
- Analytical Chemistry, Metabolomics, Chemometrics

PhD projects within Danish funded projects and International Scholarships (China)

Several speakers in the VitiNord program today

Multiple scientific journal papers and popular science

Teaching since 2006 (18-38 students pr. Year)

Attracting international students from:

- France, Spain, Poland, Turkey, Greece, Brazil, Russia, Norway, Canada, US, Italy, Bulgaria, UK, Finland, Swiss, China, Australia, Germany, Hungary, Belgium, Singapore, Mexico, Netherland, Sweden, Ukraine

Danish students from: Department of Food Science and Department of Plant and Environment:

- Biology-Biotech
- Agronomy
- Food Science
- Brew master

Teaching

- Fruit and Berry Crop Physiology and Quality, 7.5 ECTS
- Cool Climate Viticulture and Enology, 7.5 ECTS since 2006
- Applied Cool Climate Viticulture and Enology, 15 ECTS, since 2013.
- Fundamentals of Beer brewing and Wine making, since 2013
- Brewing Master education since 2011
- BSc and MSc thesis
- Associated partner in European Erasmus Mundus Vinifera Master since 2016

New fermentation tanks and pilot brewery from Kasper Schulz will strengthen Danish wine and beer research and education

The wine industry in Denmark

Research cooperation

- FOSS
- Chr. Hansen
- Lallemand
- Wineries

All companies with a strong basis in Denmark and important players in the international wine industry

There are speakers from all companies in the VitiNord program

The wine industry in Denmark

- Been a wine country in EU since 2000
- In 2018 the first BOB was given to DONS for their sparkling wine production.
- Today approx. 100 commercial producers.

The development in registered commercial growers in DK

